Dear Mr. Anderson,

On behalf of our students, staff and administration we'd like to convey our thanks to you for speaking at Stevensville High School.

Your message rang true for all of us. When dealing with others it is important how we "present" ourselves. Additionally, it is important that we all know what is "proper and correct". Lastly, how well the adults listening know that it is very hard to change a "first" impression.

Thank you for showing all of us how to conduct ourselves with a bit of "class". Your time and efforts were very much appreciated. You are always welcome in our school!

Sincerely,
